

Revolving Circle

In-depth thinking and whole class collaboration.

How it works

Pupils divide into two groups forming an inner and outer circle facing each other.

Pose a question or statement to the group and pairs should exchange views for one minute.

The inner circle then rotates clockwise and outer anti-clockwise and the new pair consider the question and so on.