

Friends reunited

Great for mini-plenaries.

How it works

Get the students to learn kinaesthetically by requesting that every ten minutes they must move to another seat and then share what they have learnt during the lesson. Students will therefore review and consolidate their learning a number of times during the lesson. Any misconceptions can also be addressed by their peers before asking you.