

Vyners School	Page 7
YEAR 10 to YEAR 11	HOME LEARNING SCHEDULE - Summer 2014
Course Title	GCSE Economics

GCSE Course title: GCSE Economics

Compulsory work set:

Data Exercise - Using the BBC website or other reliable source look out for any economic news about inflation, unemployment and gdp. Make a graph of the data and explain why each piece of data is changing and why.

Extension work set:

Make a prediction for inflation, unemployment and gdp for January 2015 and explain how and why you have made your decisions.

Optional work set:

Study the economic arguments for either staying in or leaving the European Union and explain your position.

Approximate time these tasks will take: 5 hrs

The location of shared electronic resources/ what students will be provided with/ what students could purchase:

Students will be provided with the materials needed.

How this work will be assessed at the start of Year 11:

The data exercise will be marked as homework.

I confirm that my son/daughter has completed this work.

Signed: _____ (Parent/Carer).