

VYNERS SCHOOL

SUBJECT TEACHER - Psychology

Job Description

Core Purpose: To teach Psychology to KS5.

Specific Responsibilities:

In addition to the 'Conditions of employment of teachers other than the Headteacher' as laid down in the current School Teachers Pay and Conditions document, the successful candidate should be:

- Committed to supporting the department's drive towards establishing high quality teaching and learning materials and delivering high quality lessons.
- The successful candidate should be able to teach Psychology up to A Level.
- Designing and delivering consistently high quality lessons encompassing differentiation and accessibility for all students
- Regular setting, marking and monitoring of homework
- Marking of exams and using exam data
- Using Vyners disciplinary policy for the Vyners behaviour and effort expectations
- Liaising with parents/other staff
- Attending open evenings and parents evening.

Outcomes: To enable students to achieve their maximum potential.

Person Specification

Essential:

The teacher appointed will:

- Hold Qualified Teacher Status with a good Psychology or related First Degree.
- Be dedicated to achieving high standards of academic work and discipline in the classroom.
- Foster excellent and appropriate practice, striving for absolute rigour in terms of expectations and performance.
- Teach Psychology in a way which promotes enrichment and extends the students' quest for understanding beyond just the perfunctory remit of examination specifications.
- Develop excellent relationships with students and staff.
- Have excellent use of ICT in Teaching and Learning.
- Have excellent organisational skills.
- Be a good team player.
- Have a sense of humour!