

Year 13 Trial exam study leave/ lesson arrangements 30th Nov - 16th Dec 2021

Subject	Trial exam lesson arrangements
English Lit (Miss Hockley)	Walking talking mocks in lesson before each exam
English Lit (Ms Connolly)	Pre-booked individual intervention appointments held during normal lesson time
Maths	Revision work will be set on google classroom. Students are encouraged to seek out any A-Level maths teacher for help (but are advised to make an appointment first to ensure they are available)
Biology	Revision content and work will be set remotely but teachers will also be available in classrooms for those who want to drop in for additional support / independent study
Chemistry	Revision content and work will be set remotely but teachers will also be available in classrooms for those who want to drop in for additional support / independent study
Physics	Revision content and work will be set remotely but teachers will also be available in classrooms for those who want to drop in for additional support / independent study
Business Studies	Revision content and work will be set remotely but teachers will also be available in classrooms for those who want to drop in for additional support / independent study
Computer Science	All work will be set for students to work through remotely. If any last minute help is required, come to 160 or 157.
BTEC IT	All work will be set for students to work through remotely. If any last minute help is required, come to 160 or 157.
D&T: Product Design	Lessons continue as normal to complete coursework unless student in another exam
D&T: Food Science Diploma	Lessons continue as normal to complete coursework preparation unless student in another exam
Economics	Revision content and work will be set remotely but teachers will also be available in classrooms for those who want to drop in for additional support / independent study
Geography	Teachers will be available in classrooms every lesson for drop in sessions/ 1 to1 support/ independent study.
German	Revision work set remotely with teachers available in the classroom for those who want to drop in for additional support / independent study.

Gov & Politics	Revision content and work will be set remotely but teachers will also be available in classrooms for those who want to drop in for additional support / independent study
History	Revision content and work will be set remotely but teachers will also be available in classrooms for those who want to drop in for additional support / independent study
Media Studies	Individual intervention for students behind in coursework
Music	Individual intervention for students behind in coursework All students should come to extra curricular music rehearsals up until the concert. The only reason not to, is if they have an exam the next day.
Physical Education	Intervention/ revision sessions will be communicated to students individually
Sport Diploma	Continue lessons/ some remote learning
Sport Diploma Ms Ashe	Lessons will run as normal as students are sitting their final exam in January.
Psychology	Drop in sessions (specific exam queries/ help with questions) Monday 6th December P1 and 2
Art	Lessons continue as normal to complete coursework unless student in another exam
Photography	Lessons continue as normal to complete coursework unless student in another exam